

Candidate: _____

Urbanization – a Global Differentiated Process

Please attach this sheet to your work when you hand it in Use notes from lessons + booklet pages 2-11. You should allow 45 minutes for questions 1-9 and 30 minutes for question 10.

Evaluation Grid

Comprehension of question and context  Out of 8 points	Comprehension of question is poor showing no or limited understanding	Basic comprehension of question is evident, attempts made to show reasoning	Comprehension of question is adequate, explanations are coherent	Comprehension shows well developed understanding and candidate uses knowledge to make inferences
Argument  Out of 6 points	Analysis is weak	Adequate analysis	Analysis is present and relevant	Analysis provides insight
Expression  Out of 6 points	Express is below BFI standard	Expression is weak	Expression is adequate	Expression is clear and sophisticated
Total  Out of 20 points

Use notes from Monday 6th November lesson on the Urban hierarchy and Models of Urbanisation

1. Distinguish between and account for the different classifications of settlement according to the urban hierarchy.
2. What are the key similarities and differences between the Burgess Concentric Ring model of urban growth and the Hoyt sector model of urban growth?
3. Explain how small agricultural settlements become urban settlements?
4. In what type of countries is the majority of urban growth occurring today?

Candidate: _____

Centres for Services

5. Explain for how the relationship between cities and the areas around has changed with the growth of cities.

Population Characteristics

6. Explain for why social heterogeneity is higher in cities compared to other, often more rural, areas.

Transportation's Impact on Cities

7. Distinguish between pedestrian cities and streetcar suburbs.

Population Growth and Migration

8. Identify the factors that push people from rural cities and those which attract them to cities.

Economic Development and Government Policies

9. Why might companies such as Uber and Google be attracted to cities with large numbers of graduates?

-
10. Using all your knowledge from the above responses write a summary paragraph to identify and explain the key drivers of urban development.